

[REDACTED]
New York City 10017

May 1, 1995

John Glascoe
Cypress Films
630 Ninth Avenue
NYC 10036

Dear John --

I was terrifically impressed last Thursday by what you did with the premise of my short story "Harrison Bergeron." You have made a satirical film as important as the best work of the sorely missed Paddy Chayevsky. I wish to goodness you could get into ~~theaters~~ theaters with it. It looks so majestic on a great big screen. It looks so expensive!

I hope you will find more of my work ^a inspiring. I know I can trust you to be simultaneously intelligent and exciting. I can't think of anyone else I could say that to.

Cheers,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several sweeping, interconnected lines. A small asterisk-like symbol is drawn below the main signature.

Kurt Vonnegut